Kathryn M. Carmichael is an associate of Sklar Kirsh LLP in the Real Estate Department. An accomplished business transactional attorney, Katie has over 15 years of experience in a wide range of areas in real estate including real estate acquisition, development and finance. Her clients include financial institutions, international companies, hospitals, entertainers, wineries, and real estate developers. Katie has represented buyers and sellers in all areas of real estate transactions including land use, zoning, financing, and development. She also has worked with numerous business clients on mergers and acquisitions, entity formation and maintenance, intellectual property protection, immigration issues, and various contract negotiations.

Katie graduated from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Business Administration and then attended the University of Tennessee College of Law where she was a student materials editor on the Tennessee Law Review and the managing editor of the Tennessee Journal of Business Law. After law school, Katie joined Williams Mullen's real estate group and represented a wide range of clients from individuals, start-up ventures, to Fortune 500 companies in all aspects of real estate and business matters. She later went to work as an in-house attorney and handled corporate governance, licensing agreements, corporate merger and acquisition transactional documents, supplier and vendor contracts, human resource issues and insurance matters.
