Timothy K. McMahon Jr. is an Associate in the Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring Department at Sklar Kirsh. He represents all parties in the insolvency process — debtors, creditors, committees, trustees, and asset buyers. Tim works with business and property owners, landlords, secured and unsecured creditors, Chapter 11 debtors in possession, financial institutions, and asset-based lenders to protect their interests by prosecuting and defending claims of fraudulent transfer, preference actions, nondischargeability and bar to discharge actions, and other bankruptcy-related matters. He also represents landlords throughout the country in high-profile, multi-location, retail Chapter 11 bankruptcies and provides guidance to companies in all stages of their life cycles.

Tim earned his BS from Ball State University and both an MBA and JD from Rutgers. Prior to joining Sklar Kirsh, Tim served as a law clerk to the Honorable Maureen Tighe, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, and the Honorable William Thurman, United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Utah. Active in his profession and the community, Tim is a member of the American Bar Association, America Bankruptcy Institute, Los Angeles Bankruptcy Forum, Financial Lawyers Conference, and the LGBTQ+ Lawyers Association of Los Angeles.
