

Distribution

Sklar Kirsh advises entertainment and media clients in all areas of film, television and digital distribution. Our attorneys are experienced in negotiating acquisition agreements, output agreements, negative pickup deals, studio-network licenses, sales agency agreements and international license deals. We also provide advice in areas related to online, digital and over-the-top distribution and have represented digital distribution platforms including subscription video-on-demand (SVOD) providers in a number of areas, including multi-picture license agreements, channel distribution agreements, and production services agreements.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Represented producers and theatrical distributors in the sale and acquisition of domestic release films.
